NEWS NOTES.

The Breathitt county grand jury returned over 100 indictments.
In Clinton county, J. A. Tompkins shot and killed Henry Johnson.
Mrs. George Birdwell is Taylorville's first woman saloonkeeper.
Mrs. President Roosevelt says she spends only $200 a year in dresses.
Green Snow, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Jackson, died of smallpox.
An average of 300 rabbits a day has been shipped from Updon, Hardin county, for the past two weeks.
The aggregate damage caused by the great storm on the Atlantic coast is estimated at over a million dollars.
Robbers at Armadillo, Kas., put four men to sleep with knockout drugs in saloon, robbed the place and set it on fire.
Vina Brewer was convicted in the Harlan circuit court of houseburning and sentenced to the penitentiary for 10 years.
The grand jury at Memphis has indicted Mrs. Maud Emma Hooks, a prominent woman, for the murder of her husband.
Since Tuesday there have been in an Arsenal Valley City, Miss., three railroad wrecks, three steamboat disasters and two fires.
Mrs. Christina Haezger, an aged woman living at Hamburg-on-the-Lake N. Y., was tortured by robbers, who applied matches to her bare feet.
At Pittsburg, Kas., the family of George Lane, a prominent citizen, and church worker, is under arrest, charged with systematic robbery of merchants.
The steamer Alenta, from Oionago, Subit Bay, to Manila, with 200 passengers, is believed to have been lost. Several discharged American soldiers were on board.
Following a family quarrel, Robert Whiting, at Unionville, O., shot and mortally wounded Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stokes, his wife's parents, and was killed by a son of Stokes.
A lone singer of an opera company singing in St. Louis has instituted mandamus proceedings against the city and the smoke inspector to compel the clearing of the atmosphere so he can sing.
Detective Armstrong and Harding, of Louisville, have made claim to $1,000 of the Goebel reward fund, claiming to have secured the first clues for the conviction of Yostover, Howard and Powers.
By agreement of attorneys, the appeal of the Hetschke Coal Company for a permanent injunction against the union miners of Hopkins county will be argued before Judge Evans in Louisville, Dec. 6.
The administrator of Fannie Williams, an actress who was fatally injured in her private car at Elizabethtown by an L. & N. freight backing into it, was awarded $11,000 against that railroad company.
The Bourbon News has been leased for three years by George D. Mitchell, of Paris. The paper is owned by Swift Champ, son of the late Bruce Champ, who retires from active business on account of declining health.
Wm. Bradley, a prominent farmer and strike sympathizer, was shot down in the streets of Madisonville by J. W. Hancock, a policeman, whose wild shots wounded a small boy and a Negro, by accident. Excitement is so high that the preliminary hearing of the miners under arrest was postponed.
Newell C. Rathbun, the bungling bad man, was indicted for murder on six counts by a special grand jury in Jeffersonville, and when arraigned he pleaded not guilty. The body of Goodman, Rathbun's victim, was received in Jeffersonville, but the coroner was ordered not to open the coffin except under the direction of the court.
Mr. Lador Raynor, of Baltimore, Rear Admiral Schley's chief counsel before the court of inquiry, refused to accept a fee for his services and also declined to present an expense account.
As a token of esteem and affection the rear admiral and his wife have presented Mr. Raynor with a gold watch and chain and Mrs. Raynor with a brooch of diamonds.
The camp of the union miners at Nortonville was disbanded Sunday by the civil authorities of Hopkins county, supported by the militia under Adj. Gen. Murray.
No resistance was offered and 24 of the men who defied County Judge Hall's order Saturday to disperse, were arrested, but three of them escaped. All the others had slipped away. The tents were taken down and the prisoners were conveyed to Madisonville, where they were placed in the county jail. The troops were kept in the back ground and they were only needed to act as guards.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Roy S. Bentley is now handling F. Reid's horses.
The winter yield of wheat for Kansas is 90,045,514 bushels.
Craig Gooch sold to Henry Anderson a red horse for $31.
C. Vandy got six barrels and 62 pounds of corn from five shocks.
Corn sold at $3.40 per barrel at A. W. Robinson's sale in Jessamine.
Pure bred Narragansett turkeys for sale. Mrs. R. C. Hocker, Stanford, 25.
Ed and N. B. Price, of Garrard, bought of J. P. Ballard 20 yearling cattle at $10.
M. J. Farris bought 40 yearling and two-year-old cattle at Lancaster yesterday at about $10.
Lewis L. Doty's 50-acre crop of corn averaged 10 barrels—very probably the best yield in the county.
Colorado climate does not seem to agree with Crescence. A mile in 2:10 was the best he could do at Pueblo.
The official estimate of the Texas cotton crop is 2,500,000 bales, or 800,000 less than the total product of the State in 1900.
During the last racing year W. C. Whitener's stables won $104,100. C. John E. Madden's winning amounted to only $102,855.
Forester Reid sold to Farris & Donny two three-year-old mares and three yearling geldings for $1,000. They are all by Durey Golds.
Geo. D. Weatherford bought of R. C. Nunnally 75 barrels of corn at $2.75. S. M. Owens bought 27 barrels of Mr. Nunnally at same.
The Paris Kentuckian says that J. W. Ferguson sold to James Wehl 3 1/2 round cattle at $10 and Potts & Gibson sold to Casey Woodford 25 feeders at $25.
Joe A. Cohen has been appointed solicitor in the new Central Stock Yards, of Louisville, being selected out of a list of 30 applicants—Woodford.
Judge Shuckelford Miller granted a temporary injunction which requires the L. & N. railroad to deliver to the Southern railway all cars of live stock destined to the Central stock yards.
Seven express cars full of dressed turkeys left Paris Saturday for Boston and Philadelphia. Each car contained 25,000 pounds of turkeys and they were bought in Bourbon, Nicholas and Fleming counties at $5.
Douglas Thomas, of Paris, has developed over 100 horses in the 2:30 and 2:20 lists, is one of the hardest workers who sits in a sulky, and has acquired considerable property through his active methods. He brought out Ivy Doe, 2:11, and sold her at Detroit, after shorting L. E. Smithers a mile to 2:09, for $11,000.

LANCASTER COURT.—There were about 200 cattle on the Lancaster market yesterday, the greater part of which the latter being some good yearlings and two-year-olds. Cows for beef purposes sold at 2c. No good horses were offered but a number of ordinary ones sold at $25 to $75. Mules were sold at $50 to $100.

Lancaster Vandell, formerly of Louisville, is one of the largest owners of land in Boyle or Mercer county. He has bought the farm of Clay McKoy, containing 560 acres, and adjoining the one he already owned. The price was $57 per acre. About two weeks ago Mr. Vandell bought 115 acres from Jake Huguely. This, with his recent purchase, gives Mr. Vandell about 1,100 acres.

Elmendorf, the handsome home of Mr. J. B. Haggin, in Fayette, is certainly a wonderland. Mr. Haggin is just finishing his $750,000 residence and it is like entering a fairyland to visit the place. The farm contains 5,000 acres, has an electric plant that lights the house and barn. There is a magnificent laundry and this and the great mill that grinds the feed for the hundreds of thoroughbreds. Short-horn cattle and Shorthorn ponies is run by electricity. At the porter's lodge is a large crescent of the stars and night is made gorgeous in its magnificence. Mr. Haggin is rated at $80,000,000.

JUMPED ON A TEN PENNY NAIL.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced in three days the child was wearing her shoes as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. At the porter's lodge is a large crescent of the stars and night is made gorgeous in its magnificence. Mr. Haggin is rated at $80,000,000.

The Bank of Liverpool, of Liverpool, England, was victimized by a trusted book-keeper to the extent of possibly $500,000.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

J. R. Oatts, familiarly known as Uncle Rollie, is dead in Wayne county.
Chas. C. Glass has been appointed postmaster at Camp Nelson, Jessamine county.
Sixty cases are on the docket of the Federal court, which began at London yesterday.
Dr. Samuel I. Fox, brother of Attorney C. C. Fox, of Danville, is dead at Willis, Texas.
At Flat Lick Sam Early shot and seriously wounded Frank Farley over an old grudge.
Central University defeated the Avidale Athletic eleven 5 to 0 at Danville Saturday afternoon.
Marion Chiswood and Richard Jones are under guard at Williamsburg charged with killing Rufus Angel.
The Harrodsburg Democrat is authority for the statement that Lee Boone, of Mercer, killed six owls at one shot.
An unknown admirer stole a photograph of Miss Beatie Dunlap, of Danville, from the Amuse studio, on Fourth Avenue, Louisville.

John T. Smith, a miner at Jellicott, killed his son-in-law, M. Starr, with a hatchet. Starr, it is alleged, was beating Mrs. Starr and Smith's wife when Smith returned home.

The Greasy Oil Company's No. 1 on the Lester farm, at Snybrook, Wayne county, which was shot the other day, that was a 10-barrel well before shooting, has since been making 125 barrels per day.

At a Negro festival at Needmore, Shelby county, a general fight occurred in which Mike Rickett, colored, was instantly killed and Bob Vandye, another Negro, was so badly wounded that he died.

A Somerset dispatch says that Geo. W. Walt and R. G. Hall, president and cashier of the defunct Somerset National Banking Company, were granted a change of venue to Laurel county by Judge Morrow, they having fled at Davis that owing to the prejudice against them they could not obtain a fair trial in that county.

MATRIMONIAL.

E. M. Shelly, cashier of the Bank of Bourbon, and Miss Dorra Harrison, of Albany, will marry Dec. 4.

An Anderson, Ind., would-be groom had his marriage postponed a week because his wedding suit was stolen.

The engagement is announced of Miss Elsie Gaylord, Louisville, and John C. Latham, a New York broker at Louisville.

It is announced that the wedding of Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, and Mrs. Mary A. Blackburn will occur in Washington Dec. 10.

A violent quarrel between Henry Wilhelm and Prince Henry, her husband, is said to be responsible for the Queen's serious condition.

Cleveland Commins, aged 16, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded at his home in Mercer while handling a gun which was accidentally discharged.

James Adair, a young farmer living at Kaskaskia, Ill., who has been married three times in one year, made his third matrimonial venture, taking a wife 10 years his senior, who has also been married three times.

LIE, STEAL, DRINK AND SWEAR.—There is a newspaper in Kansas whose motto is, "Lie, Steal, Drink and Swear," and it is thus explained by the editor: "When you lie, let it be done to pleasant dreams; when you steal, let it be away from immoral associates; when you drink, let it be pure water; when you swear, let it be that you will patronize your home paper, pay your subscription and not send your job work away from home."

BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA.—"Some years ago while at Martinsburg, W. Va., I was taken with cholera morbus, which was followed by diarrhoea. The doctor's medicine did me no good. I was advised to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I did, and it cured me sound and well."—G. A. Morris, Embreeville, Pa. Sold by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

The John Griffith Co., which plays "Faust," is listed up in Lexington. H. L. Lick, the musical director, and Nellie St. Clair, who played minor parts in the company had attachments served on the company's scenery, claiming that salaries had not been paid according to contract. Lick was arrested, charged with grand larceny, he having refused to turn the music over to the manager.

One of the heaviest snowstorms for years has been prevailing at Oakland and Terra Alta, W. Va., on the summit of the Alleghany mountains.

Thanksgiving, 1901.

Our faithful friend and guide:
Hastened yeild from vilen and field
Rich comfort to provide.

Our feet He leads
Through verdant meads
The living streams beside.

And for His love we homage pay
To Him this best Thanksgiving Day.

With swelling song and glad acclaim
We come from fields and hearts
To magnify His holy name

With humble, thankful hearts.
Through all the years
His help appears

With love that never departs
For this we come and gladly lay
Our tributes this Thanksgiving Day.

For all the Lord hath done for us
We chant a glad refrain
From coast to coast, from sun to sun,
From valley, hill and plain.

O Shepherd, guide,
Whate'er befalls
His love will still remain.

And bowing at God's throne we pray
His blessings this Thanksgiving Day.
—Will M. Naupie

LANCASTER.

Revival services begin at the Baptist church tonight.

Gen. Gentry passed through our city with his dogs a few days since en route to Crab Orchard Springs to join in the big boogie for huns.

The foundation for the Presbyterian parsonage is nearly completed. This bids fair to be one of the most attractive buildings in town, if the plans are fully carried out.

Everything is very quiet since the election. Republicans are too sore to make a fuss and democrats so satisfied with the present state of affairs that they, too, keep quiet.

The exchange, conducted by the Ladies' Aid Society, will be opened tomorrow, Wednesday, afternoon instead of Saturday afternoon. This is in order to supply the wants of the patron for Thanksgiving.

The remains of Mr. N. B. Adams, formerly of this county, but who died at the Lakeside Asylum, were brought here for burial Friday. Mr. Adams was 45 years of age, with no family. He leaves quite a handsome estate, situated in Lincoln county.

Hon. George T. Farris is receiving a great deal of encouragement in his race for president of the Senate. Being such a earnest worker for the good of the people, Mr. Farris deserves and is pretty sure to have conferred upon him the honor of presiding over the actions of the Senate.

Miss Bella Arnold has returned from a delightful visit to Nicholasville. Messrs. John Bates and James Hatcher left today for Grassy Lake, Arkansas, where they will engage in business.

Mrs. J. H. West is very ill at her home near Hyattsville. Mrs. J. W. Poor returned Saturday from Deming, N. M., bringing her son, Casey Owsley, who is quite ill.

Chief of Police S. D. Turner arrested 19 crap shooters Sunday. The parties confessed and a fine of $25 each was imposed. He also arrested Lavender Johnston, charged for cutting wire, intent to kill. Also Matt Eason and Sallie Reid, colored, were fined $25 each.

He arrested seven colored men for shooting with intent to kill, two being held in $200 bond. Mr. Turner is a terror to evil doers, and the police are highly pleased with his services.

The supper, given by the Christian Endeavor at the Mason Hotel Friday evening, was a success, both financially and otherwise. Some 75 or 80 persons were present and all report a delightful time. After supper was served, the young people spent the remainder of the evening in social enjoyment. Excellent music was furnished by some of the young ladies. Something more than $20 was taken in at the door, leaving quite a neat little sum to go toward repairing and remodeling the Christian church, to which cause the proceeds will be devoted.

The people of this and adjoining counties anticipate in the "Old Fiddler's Contest," to be given at Garrard Opera House on Thanksgiving evening, one of the most attractive entertainments ever given in Lancaster. There are to be 14 contestants, all of whom are among the very best old-time musicians to be found in this part of the State. The rates of admission are very reasonable and a great number of tickets have already been sold. All lovers of music should stand as they are sure to get their money's worth in addition to helping along a good cause. Proceeds to go for the benefit of the Lancaster Commercial Club.

Out this out and take it to Craig & Hocker's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They cleanse and purify the stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c. per box.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

W. P. WALTON.

THE following from the Indianapolis Sun, a republican paper, shows that even some republicans in the Hoosier State think Durbin is capable of making a mistake: "Gov. Durbin lost his head when he sent to Kentucky a letter of refusal in which he sought to expose the short-comings of Judge Cantrell of making strident rulings and instructions in order to advance his candidacy for the United States Senate. A brief statement that request for reelection had been denied because he felt that the accused could not yet receive a fair trial, would have been enough and would not have exposed, as his letter did, expose, him to the charge of partisanship."

With democratic county officers elected for four years hence, Hon. M. F. North in the Legislature, Hon. G. T. Harris in the Senate, Hon. G. G. Gilbert in Congress, Jos. C. S. Blackburn in the U. S. Senate and Gov. McCreary on his way, Lincoln county democrats are feeling pretty well, thank you, and are not worrying about the republicans having a president, who is making himself famous by slinging Negroes at his private table.

EDITOR JOHN M. ALLEN, of the Cynthia's Democrat, declined the appointment as private secretary to Congressman J. N. Kehoe and ex-Senate Senator John Johnson, of Lawrence, was named. Every newspaper man in the State will learn with pleasure that Mr. Allen's crisp editorial will not be discontinued and will congratulate him on sticking to a business for which he is so eminently well fitted.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says that nearly all the chairmanships of the House committees will remain unchanged in the new Congress and the changes in membership will be slight. The new democratic members will stand a better chance for recognition than republicans, owing to the policy of giving the minority representation on all committees.

It is rather out of the ordinary to get out an injunction to prevent a man from attending church, but that was done in the wicked city of Chicago the other day. The pastor of the Holy Name Cathedral filed suit for an injunction to keep the Rev. Jeremiah J. Crowley, the excommunicated priest, from attending services in the cathedral.

It will be bad news to the average editor to learn that the Central Pressers' Association makes the official announcement that passes will be abolished Jan. 1. Planking down three cents per mile will be pretty tough for the boys and it will have a decided tendency to make them love home more or stay at home more, any way.

CHARLES GIGANTE was fined $25 and sent to jail for 30 days at Aron, O., for forcing as a single man. When he serves his sentence and his wife gets through with him he will know better than to do such a silly thing again.

It will take only 50 votes to nominate Gov. McCreary for U. S. Senator on the first ballot. That's dead easy. The Madison county statesman just as well be packing his trunk to go to Washington now.

WHILE enjoying your turkey Thursday, don't forget the many poor people in town and country who are without food. Try and make a few sad souls happy on the good Thanksgiving.

The Owensboro Messenger's Sunday supplement is indeed a thing of beauty. Brer. Woodson is one of those gentlemen who goes a-catin' in earnest when he goes at all.

It is probable that Senator Jo C. S. Blackburn will lead the minority in the next Senate. No man in the country could better represent the democratic party.

The Lexington Democrat finds it necessary to make the statement that the paper has neither been sold nor changed hands and that it is "there or stay."

Of the many things to be thankful for this Thanksgiving democratic success of just three weeks ago today is by far not the least.

The Elizabethtown News has just celebrated its 34th birthday and like wine, it grows better with age.

POLITICAL.

Congress will be asked to make a reduction in postage rates. The United States government has taken charge of the latimian transit. George W. Greenup, of Paducah, has announced for Congress in the First District. Judge Pryor thinks the next Legislature will pass a bill appropriating $1,000,000 for a new capitol.

HOTEL BELMONT, WILLIAMSBURG, KY.,

The elegant new hotel that Messrs. J. B. Owens & Son, of this place, have just taken charge of.

Hon. Vincent Northing announced to a speech in Leslie county this morning to succeed himself in Congress.

L. Karon, sentenced to three months in jail, with a $500 fine, for intimidating voters in Louisville. William Gwin, who for 30 years served as chief messenger to the secretary of State at Washington, is dead.

The report of the Philippine Commission, upon which Congress is expected to base legislation, arrived in Washington by special messenger.

Gen. Dan R. Collier, of Lancaster, has written a letter to republican leaders, asking their support in the upcoming fight. C. M. Barnett looks like a winner.

Bradley is again heralded as the Warwick of Kentucky politics. Bradley is always at the top when the republicans are in the trough of despond.

Owensboro Messenger. The treasury department has received through the New York Collector of Customs a contribution of $15,000 to the "conscience fund," the largest contribution of the kind on record.

If William Goebel had been a republican, and if Taylor were a democrat, does any one imagine for a moment that Gov. Durbin would be so wonderfully concerned about the kind of justice meted out in Kentucky?—Bryan's Commoner.

Contest suits have been filed in Todd county for the office of county judge, county clerk, county attorney and school superintendent. Two magisterial contests have already been filed and M. V. Lyon, the republican nominee for representative, has sued County Clerk Dickinson for damages.

In the constitutional convention at Richmond, Va., an amendment was adopted providing for the compulsory education of children between eight and 13 years of age, unless excused by the local school authorities. A section providing for separate schools for whites and blacks was unanimously adopted. Judge Beckwith, in office, as well as throughout his life, has conducted himself with honor and has made a model attorney general. In retirement he may be assured he has the respect and sympathy of a great majority of Kentuckians, who will be only too glad to honor him in the future.—Paducah News-Democrat.

THIS AND THAT.

Jonestown, Miss., was practically wiped out by fire.

Fred Wright has been appointed postmaster at Russell, Pulaski county. The residence of J. G. Miller burned at Pittsburg and his four daughters perished.

Ex-President Cleveland is laid up with a severe cold, but the dispatches say he is improving.

L. & N. stock went up to 1094 on the New York stock market yesterday but later declined to 1084.

Dr. J. H. King, one of the oldest and best-known citizens of Princeton, was found dead in his bed.

Pretty Miss Helen Vanderhilt Wackerham, of New York, is raising wild and tried to kill a trained nurse in London.

The general merchandise store of W. D. Tarter, at Tarter, Casey county, was robbed and burned. Loss $4,000, insurance $2,000.

A Richmond dispatch says: Reports have come that small-pox has broken out at Red Lick, in this county, and the authorities have gone to quarantine that section of the county.

At Middleboro John Holt and Geo. Bull quarreled and Holt walked off. When he was 50 yards away Bull fired at him. Holt ducked and was struck in the nose, the bullet piercing the bridge.

The Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland has sued Claude Chinn, clerk of Fayette county, on a note for $9,401.75, less credits of $1,300. The amount represents the shortage in his office, for which the company was surety.

At Cleveland a judge discharged a man who admitted he had stolen from the Standard Oil Company, on the grounds that that great corporation had robbed the people and it was stolen property that the prisoner had taken.

Four out wells came in yesterday in the Shavers Fork field in Wayne county.

While an actor in a Chicago theater was singing a song regarding Admiral Soley and the battle of Santiago more than half the audience rose and cheered.

Because of numerous burglaries at Newport, the business men are arranging to hold an indignation meeting to demand a shake-up in the police force.

Sunday three masked men entered "The Mint," a gaming resort at Chickasaw, I. T., ordered all present to hold up their hands and carried off $700 in currency.

"Rev." Peter Vinograd, the Lexington preacher, was the only occupant of a cell at the police station early this afternoon. He was charged with being drunk, says the Leader.

The breaking up of the union miners' camp at Nortonville and the arrest of some of the men found there, has had little effect upon the union miners, as they have re-established the camp at Nortonville.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The new Catholic church at Pineville was dedicated Sunday.

Rev. S. M. Bernard's two weeks' meeting at Ludlow resulted in 56 conversions.

Elder J. T. Sharrard declined a call as pastor of Kane Ridge church for next year.

There have been 54 additions to the Carle Christian church in the past two weeks.

Cynthiana Christian church has had 20 additions during the present protracted meeting.

Rev. W. E. Arnold will preach a Thanksgiving sermon at the Hanley church Thursday morning.

Rev. T. M. Green, of Greensburg, will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday, morning and evening.

The United States Consular representative at Sofia has received another letter from Miss Stone, who states she is well.

There will be a Thanksgiving service at the Christian church, Hustonville, Thursday at 10 A. M., Elder B. J. Pinkerton, pastor, preaching the sermon.

The Rev. Dr. Gussakus declares: "I do not believe there is an agency more destructive of soul, mind and body, or more subversive of good morals than the cigarette." He says it is one main cause of suicide in Chicago.

See the gobber's feathers say Spread in gorgeous colors After next Thanksgiving Day They'll be feather dusters Philadelphia Press.

To the highest bidder at "Oscar Grove", three miles from Louisville, on the Danville and Pleasant Hill turnpike, our entire lot of about 20 head, 12 brood mares in foal to Allard 2:30, and the rest are all young geldings and fillies, ranging from yearlings to 4-year-olds, by such sires as Messenger, Chief, King, Almont, Minnie, Ferguson, Prince Charlie, Centaur, Red Seal, Allard, etc. Among these youngsters are some good prospects, all good individuals as we have always made that a point in breeding, and we have sent out some 10,000 DUNES from our farm. Will also sell everything pertaining to training stable—carts, sulks, harness, boots, etc. 2 milk cows, 3 calves, 200 barrels of corn, 1 very large stack of splendid hay, farming implements of every variety, such as shovels, saws, drills, hay rakes, corn planters, wagons, plows, etc., everything pertaining to farm and order posts for plank and post railing fence, also lot of new plank and rail for sale, lot of lumber, etc. Household and kitchen furniture—everything else. Sale to commence at 9 o'clock, and we will have to commence early to get through. Terms made known on day of sale. Dinner on the ground. J. C. & T. J. MOORE, S. C. & T. J. MOORE, Auctioneers.

Will also offer at same time and place the filletary property, containing a series of land, large quantities of wire, double wire, poultry house machinery and everything pertaining thereto, all to good effect. Capacity, 100 head. J. C. & T. J. MOORE, Auctioneers.

TWINS.—Geo. W. Elam, of Garrard, who is "a twin," has a twin walnut, twin ears of corn and twin cymelings which grew on his place this year.

TURKEYS, oysters, celery, all kinds of fruits, vegetables, plum pudding and everything to make an elegant Thanksgiving dinner. George H. Farris & Co.

REMEMBER that "Among the Breakers" will hold the boards at Walton's Opera House Thursday evening next. Go and spend a couple of hours enjoyably.

TELL the people about your Christmas goods through the INTERIOR JOURNAL. By far the cheapest and best way. Get our price on an "ad." from now until the holidays.

WRIGHT.—George Wright, oldest son of Winter Wright, of the West End, after a protracted illness, died Saturday and was buried Sunday afternoon in the cemetery at Hustonville. Eld. B. J. Pinkerton conducted the funeral service.

ATTORNEY GENERAL R. J. BRECKINRIDGE tells the Advocate that three attorneys a petition for a rehearing would be filed in the Pratt-Breckinridge case. In the event a rehearing is not granted, he will return to Danville and resume the practice of law.

HOW'S THIS?—The Harrodsburg Democrat says: A gentleman from the Grapevine neighborhood tells us that a young man named Sims was out on his father's place cutting wood and his dogs "treed" at a hollow log. He went to the place and drew 47 opossums out of the log.

SALE OF "PINK COTTAGE" FARM.—"Pink Cottage" farm will change hands at public auction tomorrow and the probability is there will be buyers here from several counties. Lot of feed, cattle, etc., will also be sold. Mr. J. E. Farris is preparing a big dinner for the sale crowd.

LIBERTY.—The editor of this paper hopes to meet his many Casey county patrons and friends at Liberty next Monday, first day of circuit court. If you are behind on your subscription meet him there prepared to liquidate and if you need printing of any kind, at lower prices than offered elsewhere, don't fail to see him.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—No. 25, the night passenger train from Louisville, now arrives at 12:25 A. M. instead of 12:30. No. 26, the morning Louisville passenger, arrives at 2:30 instead of 2:41. The K. C. passenger from Cincinnati arrives at 12:52 A. M. and departs at 1:55 A. M. instead of 2:10. There is no change in the train between here and Richmond.

CIRCUIT COURT came to an end by adjournment Saturday afternoon. John Tankersley, charged with breaking into property owned by the Keeley Institute and stealing salts, was acquitted on peremptory instructions. Roscoe and Arthur Blankenship and John Chappell were fined $20 each for disturbing religious worship. On account of the crowded condition of the Houses of Reform, Buena Vista Compton, who was ordered there for breaking into the C. S. depot at Moreland, was given a year in the penitentiary.

Alfred Bright, who was given a life sentence Friday for killing Sam Blackmore, also colored, at Crab Orchard, was granted a new trial.

SEE our cook stove with five-year guarantee back before buying. John Bright, Jr., & Co.

FARMERS.—Please return our wheat sacks or call and pay for them. J. H. Baughman & Co., millers.

WE will close down Thursday on account of Thanksgiving, and will not fill orders that day. J. H. Baughman & Co.

LEAVE your orders with Higgins & McKinney Wednesday for groceries, etc., for Thanksgiving day. Their house will be closed Thursday.

WITHERS FURNITURE Co. begin this issue with a standing advertisement. Read it this issue and each succeeding one and you will make money by it.

HANDSOME GIFT.—Mr. John E. Wright, the Danville monument man, presented Sexton John Williams and wife with a $50 monument on the 50th anniversary of their marriage.

OIL AT 280 FEET.—Dr. J. C. Barker, secretary and treasurer of the Beaver Creek Oil & Gas Co., telephoned us a few mornings since that good trace of oil was found at a depth of 280 feet.

BLACK CAKE.—I can save you both trouble and money by making your Thanksgiving or Christmas black cake. Come in and let me talk to you about it. Leave orders now. John H. Meier.

GOOD DINNER.—Mr. J. E. Farris will set a good dinner at his sale at "Pink Cottage" tomorrow. Following is a part of the menu: Soup, roast beef, mutton, breads, coffee, fruits, etc. Everybody is invited.

LAWSON.—The wife of John Lawson died yesterday of consumption and will be buried at Goshen church this afternoon after services by Rev. Ed Hubbard. Besides her husband, several children are left to feel the loss of a good mother.

TAXES.—Your taxes are past due and if they are not paid by Dec. 1, I will be compelled to advertise your property for sale. Save yourself the humiliation and me the unpleasant duty of taking this step by getting your tax receipt at once. S. M. Owens, Sheriff.

PROF. L. R. HUGHES closed his 5th term as teacher of the Rowland school Friday afternoon last, when his patrons and pupils set an excellent dinner for him and his sister and assistant, Miss Myrtle Hughes. This is one of the best schools in the county and Prof. Hughes is due much of the credit for making it such.

Two houses and lots in Stanford to be sold at 1 o'clock, county court day in December. Sale in front of court-house. One lot has two dwellings and necessary outbuildings. Situated near Morris Fred's mill. The other lot is on Whitley Avenue. Half to be paid cash, balance in six months. W. A. Tribble, Attorney.

A FRIEND of the young lady sends us the following: "Miss Minnie Eubanks closed her school in District No. 64, Friday. A bountiful dinner was spread and the many friends and patrons present were well entertained in the afternoon with dialogues, recitations and music. All seemed pleased with Miss Minnie's term of work."

OIL AT 382 FEET.—Owners of stock in the Beaver Creek Oil & Gas Co. were notified yesterday that a 20-barrel flow of oil was struck at 382 feet and as a consequence holders of certificates of stock in that company are feeling good. George D. Weatherford, of Hustonville, is president and Dr. J. C. Barker, of the same town, secretary and treasurer of the company, while Col. W. G. Welch and Sheriff S. M. Owens, of Stanford, are directors.

It seems that it is only a question of time until the towns of Danville, Junction City and Shelby City are connected by an electric railroad. A company has been organized for that purpose and articles of incorporation have been filed. The incorporators are George F. Anderson, C. R. McDowell, Harry W. Wiseman, Guy E. Wiseman, Jr., A. S. Robertson, Samuel Lyons, M. J. Farris and W. J. Price. The capital stock of the company at $100 per share will be $10,000, with the privilege of increasing to $100,000.

CIRCUIT COURT began at Lancaster yesterday with an unusually light docket. Following gentlemen compose the grand jury: B. M. Lear, Curtis Pearce, L. K. Perkins, John K. Sutton, Henry Pattison, John G. Doty, C. C. Becker, Jack Adams, John L. Coldiron, David Thompson, J. S. Johnson and Bright Herring. Mr. Johnson was made foreman. The petit jury is composed of T. O. Hill, R. M. Robinson, W. M. Mahan, Leander Davidson, C. W. Anderson, J. N. Denay, John Robertson, A. D. Ford, A. W. Kavanaugh, John H. Davis, H. C. Jennings, M. G. Aldridge, W. J. Romans, T. S. Miller, Richard McGrath, Jr., Geo. Bourne, M. F. Rout, Perry Taylor, T. J. Hatcher, T. M. Johnson, A. B. Ely, J. B. Parks, B. F. Moss, D. M. Lackey.

LOT hand made harness. J. C. McClary.

BRING me your eggs and get 25c per dozen. F. M. Ware, McKinney.

MOST of the stores will close Thanksgiving so you had better do your shopping today and tomorrow.

I AM now in full charge of the meat business I bought of O. P. Huffman and I solicit a share of your patronage, promising the best, tenderest and freshest meats the market affords. Booker Wilkinson.

TO HUNTERS.—Mr. J. H. Albright, proprietor of the Albright Hotel at Broadhead, writes that game is plentiful and that he can accommodate hunters well and cheaply. Mr. Albright also runs a livery stable and can furnish hunters with teams.

A LETTER from Edwin Sexton, who, with his company was billed to present "My Uncle from New York" here Friday night last, says that owing to an accident to one of the members of the company he was compelled to cancel his date. Danville people who saw the play there can best appreciate this.

FINE CATTLE.—Mortal eye never rested on a finer lot of cattle than those Mr. T. L. Carpenter, of the West End, shipped from here yesterday. There were 20 of them, 18 of which were of his famous Angus breed. They are only 30 months-old and average 1,335 pounds. Mr. Carpenter sold them to Weihi at $4c for Lehman and they will go across the briny deep.

THE fox hunters' meeting at Crab Orchard Springs is a success in all the word implies and the lovers of the sport are there with their dogs from many counties. Gen. Gentry is there in all his glory with a dozen or so beagle hounds, a half dozen foxes and his great jack rabbit, Admiral Schley. Mine Host Willis is caring for his guests most excellently and everybody is having a good time.

If you want to spend Thanksgiving evening pleasantly go to Walton's Opera House that evening and see "Among the Breakers" presented by the following cast of characters: David Murray, keeper of Fairpoint Light, L. R. Hughes; Larry Divine, Murray's assistant, Winfred Portman; Hon. Bruce Hunter, a retired lawyer, Robt. Coffey; Clarence Hunter, Hunter's ward, Sam Severance; Peter Paraglyph, a newspaper reporter, George Sauley; Scud, Hunter's colored servant, John Shank; Miss Minnie Daze, romantic young lady, Miss Polly Traylor; Bess Starbright, "Cast up by the Waves," Miss Anna Darst; Mother Carey, a reputed fortune teller, Miss Ella May Saunders; Biddy Bane, an Irish girl, Miss Myrtle O'Bannon.

"PINK COTTAGE" FARM !

For Sale At Auction.

Having purchased property in Danville and having decided to move to that city, I will sell Pink Cottage Farm at public auction.

Wednesday, November 27.

Pink Cottage Farm is located one mile from Stanford, on the Hustonville pike, and is one of the best farms in Lincoln county. It contains 231 acres, all of which are in a high state of cultivation. At present 70 acres are in wheat, 30 in meadow, 51 in blue grass and 50 acres will be ready for corn next spring. At the same time and place will be sold five head of work mules, a lot of choice horses, several milch cows, 30 head of short yearlings, lot of two-year old cattle, 300 bales of hay, 900 bales of straw, 800 shocks of fodder, 200 barrels of corn and all farming implements. Sale will begin promptly at 10 o'clock A. M. Terms on farm, one-third cash, balance one, two and three years with 6 per cent. interest. Possession will be given Dec. 1, 1901. T. D. English, auctioneer.

J. E. FARRIS, Stanford, Ky.

100 first-class young ewes bred to South-down bucks will also be sold.

Rubber With

Life In St.

When you buy anything in rubber goods, it pays to get the kind with rubber in it. Many makers of rubber goods are pliant to the demand for cheapness, and hence the market is flooded with inferior goods that hardly resemble rubber.

Quality counts in this line, and we are careful to buy of makers who have a reputation for turning out high grade goods only. You can have confidence in the rubber goods we offer, no matter how low the price is.

This Association will doubtless be one of the greatest educational meet- ings ever held in Lincoln county. The speakers comprise many of the fore- most educators of the State. They have kindly consented to come to Stan- ford for this purpose. Every teacher in Lincoln county should be here prom- ptly at 9:30 and be prepared to stay all day and night. The night session will be highly entertaining and most instructive. The good people of Stan- ford will gladly welcome and entertain you. All young ladies and gentlemen in the county who contemplate a higher education should be here. All parents who are interested in the welfare and future interests of their children should also take a day off and come to this meeting. It will do you good.

Very respectfully,
M. O. WINFREY, Secretary.
GARDNER SINGLETON, Co. Sup't. President.

MIDDLEBURG.

There is quite a large turkey crop. The bird is only worth $2 at this writing.

The health of the community was never better except for the fact that Miss Emma Frederick is very low with scarlet fever.

The corn crop is about gathered and the yield is anything but encouraging. New corn is selling at from $2.50 to $3.00 delivered and even higher in some sections.

Revs. Gilliam and Williams are carrying on a very successful revival at Danville. Rev. Godbey is at Liberty working in the interest of the new M. E. church at that place.

A two-week snow is reported from Northern Georgia and as far south as Atlanta and Columbia, N. C., while only a slight flurry or so has fallen in Kentucky, which looks like certain sections had escaped gliding plagues.

While skating long early Friday morning Coleman Lucas happened to be most painful accident which may cost him his right foot. In some way he got his leg hung between a log and a stump, crushing it just above the ankle.

Dr. Hancey, who attended him, fears amputation will be necessary. A grand entertainment will be given at the M. E. church Thanksgiving eve by the Epworth League. The members have been practicing almost nightly for the past two weeks and a most fitting program will be rendered, after which an elegant supper will be served at the College for a small sum.

Only three weeks yet remain of the public school term here. Profs. Davis and Depp and their able assistants have endeavored themselves both to pupils and parents in their endeavors to build up the school and their efforts have been doubly appreciated. Prof. Davis is very enthusiastic over the prospect for a large attendance at the winter session, which begins early in January.

We learn that Mr. Tarter has abandoned his contest for county attorney, which is most sensible. After counsel- tion with lawyers, Mr. Peyton has decided not to contest the election of Mr. Ellis for magistrate in the Big Rolling Fork precinct. Had Mr. Peyton won it would have only resulted in the magistracy of the precinct being declared vacant, hence he decided not to contest.

His many friends earnestly hope that Senator Farris will be for that, anything that he may seek, as no honor is too great for the man who can turn a rebellious majority of over 900 into a year to a majority for the democracy of nearly 500. Should the Senator get the coveted honor he seeks, we Casey fans earnestly hope he won't forget us while the gerrymandering is going on.
